

We are seeking for an insightful IT Security Consultant with Java programming skills to join a leading and innovative Oracle team within our organization.

The successful participant will be a key member of the team, responsible for the implementation of parts of Oracle's Identity and Access Management platforms, within customer projects.

Duties & Responsibilities

- Effectively operate as part of multiple teams in different customer projects.
- Acquire knowledge and effectively utilize Oracle's Identity and Access Management Platforms.
- Implement reusable components for Identity and Access Management platforms.
- Apply best practices and security guidelines in implementation.
- Create and maintain documentation for the design, implementation, and configuration of the platform.
- Learn and utilize tools and methodologies on Identity and Access Management area.
- Develop reports utilizing SQL and Oracle's BI Publisher.
- Use source control tools like Git.

The knowledge, skills, and qualifications we are looking for are strong working knowledge on the following:

- Java (Collections, JDBC, File Handling)
- Oracle Database Concepts
- SQL
- Rest Services
- SOAP Web Services
- WebLogic knowledge will be considered as an asset
- Oracle Business Process Execution Language (BPEL) will be considered as a strong asset
- Oracle Application Development Framework (ADF) will be considered as a strong asset
- Knowledge of standard Authentication protocols like SAML, OpenID Connect and OAuth2 will be considered a strong asset
- JavaScript and HTML knowledge will be considered as an asset
- Fluent in Greek, both oral and written
- Fluent in English, both oral and written